Weather Situation

A high pressure ridge over SA will move to the east during this morning, as a trough moves over the state during the day, followed by a strong cold front early Saturday. A high pressure system will then move across the state, behind the front, and merge with another high located to the southwest of WA on Sunday to extend a ridge across much of SA into next week. A low pressure system is also expected to move in vicinity of the WA border late Sunday and may extend a trough into far west SA into next week.

Forecast for Friday 4 September until midnight

Winds: Northwesterly 15 to 20 knots turning northerly during the morning and early afternoon. Winds reaching up to 25 knots south of Port MacDonnell in the late morning and early afternoon. Seas: 1 to 1.5 metres, increasing to 1 to 2 metres offshore during the morning. Swell: Southwesterly 4 to 5 metres. Weather: Cloudy. 90% chance of showers.
